VIDEO SURVEILLANCE AND PRIVACY POLICY

Shelly Beach Surf Club places the safety and security of our members and patrons above everything else. To reinforce this, we have adopted a CCTV surveillance system.

Shelly Beach Surf Club monitors some areas of the surf club for the purposes of safety, security and wellbeing. In addition to this we will:

- Review stored footage when directed to, as a legal requirement and authorised persons are present to do so.
- Not use any footage to manage our operations other than to determine crowd volume, safety, security and wellbeing.
- We will provide footage access to the Police and/or authorised persons as a result of any suspected anti social behaviour, abuse, assault or any other suspected criminal activity.
- Footage is stored in an encrypted format located on premise and mirrored remotely.

This policy conforms to the NSW Workplace Surveillance Act 2005 (version 8th December 2016) and adheres to the policy requirements of the SLSA Privacy Policy (6.02)

This policy is made effective this 1st day of February 2017.
